

TURF MEN RIDICULE MADDER'S OPINION

Deride Prediction That Racing Will Prosper Without Betting.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Local turfmen were inclined to ridicule yesterday the statement of John E. Madden that if betting is prohibited on the New York tracks racing will go on just the same and will receive the liberal patronage of the public.

The further assertion by Madden that the success of the turf does not in any way depend upon the speculative end of the game was also criticized. One of the leading stockholders of a Metropolitan track when asked what he thought of Madden's views, said: "Madden must be joking. Why, if betting is stopped there will be no racing, for the reason that people will not go to the tracks unless they can wager on the horses. That has been demonstrated in other States in the past. Two years ago a fine track was built at Salem, N. H., but when it came time to open up betting was prohibited and the track meeting which was held there was the biggest kind of a frost."

"The prohibition of betting killed racing in Chicago and St. Louis too."

No Wagers, No Crows.

"You can put it down as certain that if the anti-betting bills are passed at Albany there will be no racing here after this year. The various racing associations will run off their stakes to carry out their contracts with the horsemen, but with no bookmakers on the ground there will be practically no crowds. Racing and betting go hand in hand together."

"Many of the persons who are so vigorously opposed to racing never visited a track in their lives, so that they really know nothing of the conditions that exist. If racing could be thoroughly investigated instead of being subjected to abuse based upon hearsay evidence I do not believe that the sport would be interfered with and that harmless speculation would be made a crime."

There is just one reason for all this agitation, and that is the fact that the poolrooms during the Eastern racing season were killed off by the Jockey Club.

Want to Get Even.

"Many of these rooms gave employment to persons who had political friends, and since they lost their easy places they have been doing all in their power to square accounts."

"If the tracks are closed, therefore, you'll see more poolrooms in this vicinity than ever before, because the regulars who make a business of visiting the tracks will not give up betting and will look for places where they can get a play for their money."

PENN AFTER DATE ON TIGERS' LIST

Break With Cornell Leaves Open Princeton Game.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 14.—Princeton's break with Cornell, and the consequent vacancy on the Tigers' schedule, has caused those who have been working for a resumption of football relations between Pennsylvania and Princeton to redouble their efforts, and this time with some prospect of success.

Many of those in authority at both institutions have been working in this direction, but hitherto they have been working in the dark, merely trying to create a sentiment in favor of resumption.

Since the break with Harvard, Pennsylvania has been looking for another big game. Princeton is now in the same boat. For a while it looked as if the Tigers would come to terms with Harvard, but that now seems to be impossible, and the natural result would seem to be that Penn and Princeton should come together again. Both must schedule another big game soon.

Tentative Schedule.

Penn's tentative schedule follows:

Saturday, September 20—North Carolina.
Wednesday, October 4—Franklin and Marshall.
Saturday, October 7—Bucknell.
Wednesday, October 11—Gettysburg.
Saturday, October 14—State College.
Saturday, October 21—Swarthmore.
Saturday, October 28—Brown.
Saturday, November 4—Carleton.
Saturday, November 11—Lafayette.
Saturday, November 18—Michigan.
At Ann Arbor.
Thanksgiving Day, November 30—Cornell.

WADDELL LOSES FIRST OF THE 1908 SEASON

MOBILE, Ala., Feb. 14.—Rube Waddell made his first appearance in a baseball uniform this season this afternoon in a game between the Elks and the Rays, of Cleveland, Ohio, and the showing the big pitcher made was a poor one. He was wild and could not hit, being struck out by Maxwell, a pitcher from Cleveland, Ohio.

The score was 5 to 4. It was umpired by the Rev. Father Murphy, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, of this city. The following is the score by innings:

R. H. E.
Elks..... 1 0 3 0 0 5 13
Rays..... 0 0 3 1 0 0 4 13
Batteries—Waddell, C. Fritz, and Lauzon; Maxwell and Caul. Struck out—By Waddell, 4; by Fritz, 2; by Maxwell, 3. First base on errors—Caul, 1; Fritz, 1. Hit by pitched ball—Elks, 2; Rays, 1. Wild pitches—Waddell, 3; Maxwell, 2. Stolen bases—Wallace, McCay, and Caul. Umpire—Father Murphy.

STAR ATHLETE SUSPENDED.

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Feb. 14.—The biggest sensation of the year track Iowa athletics last night when it was announced that "Bill" Knowlton, the big Hawkeye halfback and varsity pitcher, had been expelled from the university for playing football when ineligible.

Indian Will Go To Olympic As Canadian Entry

Defies "Sullivan's A. A. U." to Keep Him Out of Games.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Tom Longboat, the great Indian long-distance runner, accompanied by Tom Flanagan, the manager of Longboat's club, the Canadian-Indian A. C., W. P. Cummings, the three-mile indoor champion of Canada; P. C. Feilen, the five-mile champion, and Clarence Pierce, another noted runner, stopped in Buffalo for about 15 minutes the other day on their way to Boston to compete in games.

When asked if it were true that Longboat would ask for reinstatement at the hands of the Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union, Manager Flanagan said:

Won't Ask Reinstatement.

"No, Longboat will not ask to be reinstated by Sullivan's A. A. U. They have nothing on the Indian but the mere technicality that he failed to secure permission from the national registration committee to compete on this side."

"That rule has been broken a hundred times in years past and no attention was paid to it, but in order to get even with Longboat, his refusal to be the star attraction at New York meets, the A. A. U. rulebook was gone through very carefully and that obsolete rule brought out and made noise made over it to drown out a band."

Determined to Compete.

"Longboat will go to London and compete in the Olympic games even if the whole American contingent refuse to take part. Sullivan is not running the big show in England, as he probably will learn later. Each country will be called upon to vouch for the men representing it in athletics, and we will stick by the Indian to the finish. He is as clean as the athletic line as any man you have here, and the other end of this State. They failed to get control of Longboat when he was the biggest card in sport and now they are speculating on a business of visiting the tracks in an effort to keep him off the track."

"If the tracks are closed, therefore, you'll see more poolrooms in this vicinity than ever before, because the regulars who make a business of visiting the tracks will not give up betting and will look for places where they can get a play for their money."

DETROIT ROLLER

The Sensation Of Tournament

CINCINNATI, Feb. 14.—The sensation in the A. B. C. bowling contests is the work of Bob Menninger, sr., of Detroit, who last night took first place in the individual contests. Ohio teams monopolized the playoffs nearly all day.

It has been decided to allow Jimmy Smith and Alex Dumbart, touted as the best bowlers, to represent the National Bowling Association in the international matches in the double.

The Corinthians finally won in the international match, defeating the Puritan City team last night 2,753 to 2,447. Thompson's score of 2,753, the highest score in the tournament, was made up of 2,753 to 2,447. All the other players have been renominated.
